Suzy Kurelic: Treasurer

Meeting called to order: 10:13 am

Treasurer Report: Suzy Kurelic
Suzy's new email address: smkurelic@smgk.net
There was a $5.00 charge to the account by the back. Suzy is investigating why the account was charged this.

Programs: Paula Tanner
The feedback forms results were handed out for us to read. No changes were needed. Paula gave us an overview of the guild year's proposed topics for programs and workshops.

Newsletter: Jan Anderson
The newsletter was great last month. The secret word response was good, several people responded and won a prize. Deadline for the November newsletter is Oct. 21st by 12: 00 noon. A reminder was sent out on Oct. 16th. The newsletter will be sent out on Oct. 25th. Next meeting is November 12.

Agenda for QOV: Kay Dejno
5 veterans will be there at 10:00 to be awarded their quilts of valor. The presentation will be at 10:00 with the meeting to follow. Kimberly Topper will do the presentation. After the presentation we will take a break and enjoy some red, white and blue snacks. After our break the regular meeting will start.

Fundraising: Karen Whitt
We would like to participate in the Mistletoe Market in the future.
Market Table: The beaded name tag holders were a big hit. Clare Kranzmann has donated a lot of things to sell at the market table. Lots of fabric it will be sold in yardage for $2.00 and bundles for $5.00. If you buy something you get a raffle ticket.

The Dairy festival in the spring in Eatonton may be a good festival to enter and sell things. It is held on the 1st Saturday in June. We will do a raffle quilt for next year so we will need to have a raffle quilt subcommittee.

Market Table: Robin Cassidy
We had a good first month. We made $158.00. We will receive goods for the Market Table once a quarter.

Quilt Show: Cookie Noel
Bring your top and the form for the Allied Arts Quilt Show to Cookie Noel. The theme this year is challenge quilts. Cookie will put out brochures for LOQG. Dates for the show is all of January. All entries are due in December. Dates and addresses will be in the newsletter.
